FOR SEPTEMBER

Get a head start on next month's viewing as Leonard Harris previews HBO's upcoming hit movies, specials and sports. Take a look this month at clips from the programs you'll want to see in September. August 25, 27, 29

The Enforcer

Clint Eastwood Harry Guardino

Dirty Harry's back—facing San Francisco terrorists who hold the city at their mercy. Clint Eastwood is Harry, a cop with slambang style and a trusty .44 magnum. Tyne Daly is appealing as Harry's new lady partner. Adult language, graphic violence, brief nudity. (R-1:35) August 10, 19, 22, 26, 31

Breakthrough

Richard Burton Rod Steiger Robert Mitchum

A despondent Nazi sergeant transferred to WWII's western front is embroiled in a plot to assassinate Hitler. Rod Steiger stars in this sequel to Cross of Iron—a taut action drama about the horrors of war. Adult situations and language, violence. (PG-1:33) August 12, 15, 18, 21, 23, 27, 31

SPECIAL

EARTH,
WIND
& FIRE
In Concert

Elaborate costumes, dazzling choreography, laser light effects, and ultra-smooth hits like "Fantasy," "Reasons," "Gratitude," "Let's Groove," "That's the Way of the World," "Shining Star." One of the most successful groups in recording history. August 28, 30

Family Showcase

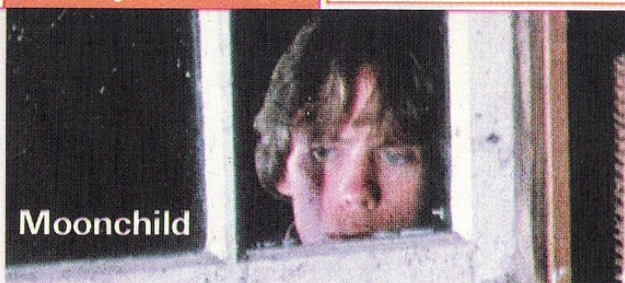

Never Never Land Petula Clark Cathleen Nesbitt

Enchanted by the story of Peter Pan, a nine-year-old escapes loneliness by writing to him. Her letters bring surprising results. Petula Clark, Cathleen Nesbitt and Anne Seymour star. (1:26)
Aug. 5, 13, 15, 17, 19, 23, 27

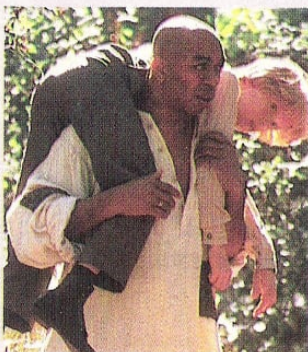

The Hideaways Ingrid Bergman

Two runaway children hide out in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, where they stumble on a mystery. Eccentric art collector Ingrid Bergman holds the key to the puzzle. (G-1:45) Aug. 6, 10, 12, 16, 20, 25, 29

Moonchild

Former "Moonies" reenact the experience of joining, then leaving, the Unification Church. This eye-opening, inside look at the religious cult shows its recruiting and indoctrination tactics, and dramatizes the deprogramming process. Winner of Best Feature Award at the National Educational Film Festival. (:49) Aug. 4, 9, 11, 17, 24, 26

The Gold Bug Geoffrey Holder

Searching an island for butterflies, a boy finds himself involved in a suspenseful hunt for Captain Kidd's buried treasure. Geoffrey Holder stars in the thrilling tale based on Edgar Allan Poe's classic mystery. (:43) Aug. 3, 9, 12, 18, 23, 26, 31

The Kids on the Block

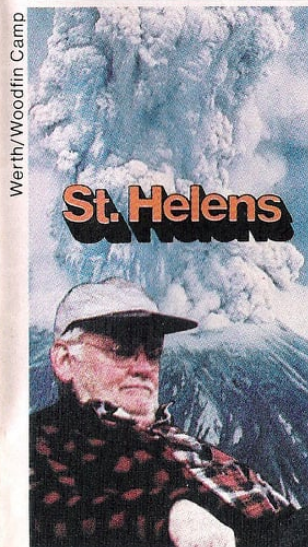

Life-size puppets play the roles of disabled children in an appealing, lighthearted manner. The clever figures show how healthy youngsters can establish positive relationships with less fortunate kids. (:30) Aug. 5, 10, 13, 16, 18, 23, 27, 30

Starts August 29

The Cannonball Run

See Page 13

Art Carney

May 18, 1980, dawned clear and calm, like any day on Mount St. Helens. At 8:31 A.M. an explosion shook the earth. The true-life drama of this disaster is also the story of a friendship between an old-timer and a young geologist. Adult language, violence. (PG-1:37) Aug. 30
